According to ancient texts, our human body is made up of five elements. These five elements are land , sky , air , water and fire. Similarly, from the point of view of science, our human body is made up of cells, muscles, bones, the beginning of all these is IONS and DNA. etc. Mainly two types of ions are found in our human body. Positively charged ions (P.C.I) and negatively charged ions (N.C.I). To measure these ions, the cubic capacity (cc) unit is used. Only in the right amount of P.C.I and N.C.I, good cells are formed. Our body needs about 1000 cc to 2000 cc 15 nci to work daily without getting tired or with full speed. N.C.I helps to keep our body active and fresh for a long time. Increases the immunity power of our body , that keeps our body healthy , and diseases stay away from our body. N.C.I is also obtained from natural places like hill station, waterfall, forest, bank of river etc. From such a natural place, we get N.C.I from about 10,000 cc to 50,000 cc , that's why people in villages are more agile than in cities.

When the amount of N.C.I in the body is low and when the amount of P.C.I is high, bad effects are seen on the body. Many problems like laziness, tiredness, irritability are seen when P.C.I is in excess in our body. Diseases give trouble to the people living in the cities as compared to the villages, because today the people of the cities have become used to electrical appliances to live their lives. Due to which our body's N.C.I starts decreasing and P.C.I increases. And whenever there is more P.C.I in the body then our body will have to face diseases. If we use mobile, T.V., computer, mixer, washing machine etc. for a long time, then gradually all these electrical equipment destroy our body's energy. N.C.I tends to decrease, and P.C.I tends to increase. Due to which we feel like tiredness and lethargy very quickly and all these tools consume 1000 cc of our body. NC's About 10 to 20 c.c.n. It reaches the N.C.I which causes weakness in the body, and laziness is seen in the work you do every day and you get tired quickly.

The therapy provided by Lifegain Medical India Company works to keep the body in the proper amount of N.C.I and P.C.I, and this N.C.I, through the products manufactured by Lifegain Company, helps people is given as therapy..

Benefits of NCI

- 1) Helps to strong the functions of the nervous system.
